MAIN TITLE -

✓ "DEMOCRACY IN EDUCATION" ✓

✓ Produced and Distributed by Ford Motion Picture
Laboratories ✓

Copyrighted 1922 by Ford Motor Company.

SUB-TITLES:

1. In the early days of our country the labors and hardships of pioneer life in the open ---
2. --- developed a sturdy race of resourceful, independent, clear-thinking man, who rebelled at tyranny ---
3. --- signed the Declaration of Independence ---
4. --- and established a democracy in which life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are guaranteed to all.
5. The new republic grew, prospered and became a rich, mighty nation.
6. In 1916, there were many who thought that the crowded conditions and manifold temptations of city life ---
7. --- had completely destroyed those ideals so firmly established by our forefathers. But at the challenge of autocracy ----
8. --- Liberty took up arms ---
9. --- turning the tide and making the world safe for Democracy.
10. Wars and rumors of wars may continue for a time ---
11. --- but eventually: -- "The war-drum throbs no longer
And the battle-flags are furled
In the Parliament of Man,
The Federation of the World."
12. When the war of force shall be no more, a new struggle will arise, a battle of wits and diplomacy ----
13. --- but selfish lust for wealth and power will ever do its best to obstruct human progress.
14. America must be prepared. Her public schools must make Democracy safe for the world.
15. Teachers must put Democracy into education.
16. That is, school training must result in the development of those qualities which are essential both to the happiness of the individual and to the strength and vitality of the nation.
17. Children still need to master the three R's. Readin'
18. 'Ritin'
19. 'Rithmetic.

(Democracy in Education - - - #2)

20. But they must be taught by methods which will result in: Self-direction --- the ability to direct one's own affairs in an intelligent and reasonable manner.
21. Self-Appraisal --- the ability to judge for one's self whether or not one is doing well.
22. Self-Control --- the ability to conduct one's own business with due respect for the rights of others.
23. Co-operation --- the ability to work with and through other people in the achievement of social purposes.
24. These are the fundamental spokes in the wheel of education that can develop this country into the greatest nation of all time.
25. The genius of -- Government ---
26. Science ---
27. Art ---
28. Literature ---
29. Music --- will be aided and spurred to surpass any previous effort ---
30. --- and the United States will stand as a modern Greece, giving unselfishly a full share of its attainments to the world.
